Manager's note

Parking

As you are all well aware, the six spaces we have outside the building are for Westbourne tenant clients. They are unfortunately not for tenants.

Please obey the rule as it causes massive problems for us all, when your clients sit waiting to park in a space they have reserved.

Art Light Paint Jam

A creative and alternative way to spend a Saturday night for anyone interested in playing with paint and colour for the night.....and there's no sacrificing the partying you may be used to! as it happens in a night spot with funky music to dance, a bar and lovely people...

No need to be an Artist! You just need to turn up and explore you're creativity with an abundance of colourful paints, brushes and much more, in this fun and uplifting atmosphere!

It's all about letting your creativity flow and feeling free! There's no right and wrong and no official teaching involved though Artist and Teacher Dalia Zermon, and others, will be there to inspire and encourage. People can really surprise themselves at these evenings!

When you fancy a break from your masterpiece, you can boogie to the funky beats and get yourself a drink at the bar....and then put that passion back on the canvas!

There is also a massive communal canvas where you can add your brush strokes and get creatively entwined with others.

At the end of the night you get to take your Canvas home and hang it on that vacant wall you've been noticing or equally behind that big box in the attic....

We actually sometimes have people making offers on people's paintings at the end of the night so you never know!

This event is open to all adults so come along with or without friends...the fun and creative atmosphere is a great ice breaker....

All materials are provided but advisable not to wear your favorite clothes! All paint is water based and little flickers usually wash off, but staining can occur.
